Dear Sir,

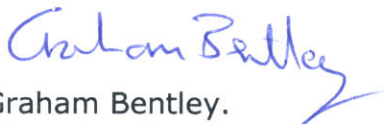

I am happy to confirm that Jane Perkins & Philip Godwin of Auditel have been working with Jasun Filtration PLC to examine expenditure in the areas of gas and electricity.

The Auditel methodology has been applied with speed, efficiency and great diligence to implement improvements in the way we control costs. We now maintain a close working relationship with Auditel, who continue to add benefit to our business by monitoring our ongoing costs and ensuring that further cost saving opportunities are identified and exploited.

Apart from the cost saving, clearly management time has been saved as well.

We have been very impressed both with their professional approach and pleased with the savings they have realised, both financial and in management time and I would have no hesitation in recommending the Auditel Service they provide to other companies.

Yours faithfully,
